I only met "Flo" a few times but each time I visited with her my impression of her was that she was a gracious friend, caring mother, and loving wife. It seemed that the Lord had not only made her comfortable with who she was in Him but with who He wanted her to be to others. She sought to make others at ease in her presence. In each of our conversations her words were encouraging, as she shared from years of life experience and wisdom. I have fond memories of her and of her cute light laugh which came easily and her beautiful smile. We are praying for David, Karen Jim and the family in their loss of a dear lady. Carol Ragsdale
