Rashad Robert Burton Lee Clark, Jr., 67, of Ellenton, FL and formerly of Jamaica-Queens, NY, passed away November 26, 2015. Robert earned his degree in education and spent the last 10 years teaching Business at Anthem Institute. Robert loved the energy of New York but was adapting to the Florida lifestyle quite well. He enjoyed his new hobby of gardening and was passionate about computers. Robert had a beautiful singing voice, extremely intelligent with a constant thirst for knowledge. He had a voracious appetite for the Nation of Islam and his faith.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory by his loving wife, Marie Erwin Clark, son, Ciaus Clark, daughters; Alicia Jolly, Alicia Walker, Robin Rogers, Tamika Borger, mother, Marjorie Cephas, brother, Reginald Clark, sisters; Renee Clark, Robin Clark and 4 grandchildren. Robert is preceded in death by his father; Robert Clark.

A song written by his step granddaughter, Sunshine, whom he loved and she loved in return.

Hey, it's me again. Im trying to think of what could have been.
You know it could have been worse, you could have been more hurt.
You could have suffered your death, you could have took your last breath.
But, I want you to know that I will always love you all the time.
I've been talking to you at the end of the line.
Hi, it's me once again, you've been great to me, you've been a great friend.
I know you never have slacked you always had my back.
But now it's time to move on, you've left your words to carry on.
It's time to let go, but I want you to know - I will always love you all the time.
I've been talking to you at the end of the line.
I will always love you.
