Elaine June (Eastman) Crapo went with God on 28 October 2017. She was born in Whitefield, NH on 21 June 1936, lived in Jefferson, NH and then moved to Lancaster, NH where she graduated from High School in 1954. She met her future husband, Harold while in the 10th grade. Elaine joined the Elite Women's Army Corps (WAC) and became a Teletype Operator. Later, she joined the USAF Reserves for 5 years. She was most proud of God, Country, her military service, family, and friends. She followed Harold to Japan and they were married at Tachikawa AFB on 16 November 1957. They raised two sons, Harold III and Curt and have 3 grandsons. Elaine was a champion Gardner, Bowler and Golfer. She never met a stranger while remaining loyal and dedicated to her family for 60 years. The key to the longevity was we never lost respect for each other and the great people we both met along the way. Services are entrusted to Skyway Memorial Funeral Home.
