Robert Weintraub

OCT 13, 1928 - JUL 19, 2018

Robert Weintraub, age 89, left this world on July 19, 2018 at his home in Bradenton, Florida. Bob lived a long and full life which included 53 years of wedded bliss to his beloved Anita. Born on the threshold of the great depression, Bob entered the workplace at a young age and didn't stop working until well into his 70's. After a stint in the U.S. Marine Corps at the close of W.W. II, Bob attended Goodman Theater in Chicago where he fell in love with theatrical production. He became a successful salesman, but always maintained a connection to the performing arts, whether entertaining in community theater, film, t.v., and of course, story and joke telling. A self-proclaimed "raconteur", Bob was an easy going guy who had the rare quality of connecting with and being loved by virtually everybody who ever met him. Preceded in death by his wife, Anita, he is survived by his brother Fred, sister Beverly, three sons, Larry (Renee), Mark (Gigi), and Ian (Cindy), the 2 daughters he wished he could have had (Patricia and Sara), four enormously cherished grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, as well as a host of other loving relatives and friends around the country. Funeral will be at Skyway Memorial Gardens, Palmetto, July 24 at 1pm. Bob has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to his final theatrical conquest, The Manatee Performing Arts Center in Bradenton, FL.

It is with heavy heart that I am posting this condolence to the Weintraub family on behalf of our doctors and staff at Urology Partners.I first met Robert Weintraub in 2011 when hired under the medical practice where Dr. Mark Weintraub holds senior partnership. Bob worked part time helping sort & organize his son's incoming mail and other small projects. His energetic attitude & engaging smile immediately created a bond. I could tell that he embraced life!Bob had this amazing play on words and humor. He used both like a craft that could bring a smile to anyone's face. He once told me that his greatest accomplishment was being a parent. He was proud that his kids not only loved each other... but truly "got along and were friends"!Bob Weintraub was an actor, poet and gentleman. He participated locally with the Manatee Players Performing Arts Center. He was not a braggart... but would sometimes quip that he had launched the career of Keith Urban.It is easy for us to recognize greatness from afar. I was lucky enough to witness this good man up close. Robert Weintraub will be dearly missed. God take him in his care.https://www.google.com/url?sa=t&rct=j&q=&esrc=s&source=web&cd=1&cad=rja&uact=8&ved=0ahUKEwi7y_X07JncAhVLXKwKHxakDiAQyCkILDAA&url=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.youtube.com

I will miss him,,,especially his stories. I know he didn't enjoy coming to his treatment, so I tried to make it as tolerable as possible. We always enjoyed a good movie together, especially a musical. The last movie we watched was "The Music Man", which was one of my favorite plays. I'll miss you Bob! At least you are at peace and pain free now. " I put a new on for ya baby". Nobody will know what that means, but how you made me laugh every time you said that....XOXOXO
