I met Geary when Erma hit my home. I had to have a new roof plus so much more. After we were thru with the paper work, we started talking about our faith which was very close to my belief. Next came our government again we thought along the same lines. Because of problems with my roof we were able talk often and on the same subjects. We even prayed together several times. Then we both loved the game of Golf and so the stories goes on. He was a man of faith who loved his God and I know he is with him now. No more pain and suffering. So Geary play all the Golf you can and now you can see the ball. My prayers are with you Brenda and your children . He was a honest, generous man.you have to be so proud of him and that you were able to share his life. He will be greatly missed, no one will ever be able to replace him. GOD NEW WHAT HE WAS DOING WHEN HE MADE THIS WONDERFUL MAN. Hold on to your faith it will help you thru these tough times. I lost my husband,brother and identical twin all in the past couple of years. God never leaves us never call on him he will be their. God bless you and your family.In ChristMartha McLaren

Dear Brenda, Geary and Jennifer: My deepest sympathy. Geary was a wonderful neighbor and good friend. One of my fondest memories of him was when he told me he was going to build a deck. I woke up on Saturday morning at 8 a.m. to hear him nailing a board to the house. When I got home from Saturday Mass at 6 p.m. he was grilling out on the deck!! He was a man of many accomplishments! I know you will miss him. He was a wonderful person and the both of you were very generous with sharing what you had by opening your pool for swimming lessons, just to mention one example. My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. Joan Ryan
