When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

The people of the Woodlands Chapel are deeply moved and grieved by the loss of this lovely woman, whom we had for only a short while. Marsha was a light and an encouragement to us all. May the Lord comfort and keep Marsha's dear family! What sorrowful news. Kerry & Vicky Dunn Pastor & wife, The Woodlands Chapel
