When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned

JUN 30, 1939 - OCT 23, 2020

And remember only the smile
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

Dear Barbara and Family, We are so sorry to hear of Eddie's death. We often speak of our time together in Wolcott when we were all much younger. It was great to come together a few years ago for lunch in Florida. We are sure Eddie will be watching over his beloved family and his Phillies. God Bless You and we will keep Ed and your family in our prayers. Teddy and Sandie
