Every time I close my eyes, I can still picture your face, your bright smile and the twinkle in your eyes. I miss the sound of your voice, your contagious laughter, and the way you would brighten up any room you walked into. I miss our long talks about life, our shared interests, and our dreams for the future. It breaks my heart to know that I won't be able to see you again, to hug you and tell you how much I love and appreciate you. My heart aches with the memories we shared and the memories we will never get to create. I wish I could turn back time and hold onto every moment we had together. You were more than just a friend, you were like family to me, and losing you has left a hole in my heart that will never be filled. I miss you more and more each day, and I will always cherish the beautiful memories we made together. Rest in peace, my dear friend.
