Linda S. Eddy

SEP 3, 1941 - DEC 15, 2021

Linda S. Eddy, 80, of Palmetto, Fl passed away Wednesday, December 15, 2021 at Blake Medical Center. Born in Kentucky, she was one of seven children of the late Mallie and Dixie (Coldiron) Robinson. Linda was born with an ambitious and adventurous spirit, so at young age she set out to Chicago to find her future. During her time in Chicago she had many careers, but the majority was spent working at O'Hare Airport and finding success in real estate. She later met and married Edward Eddy. They moved to Florida after his retirement and enjoyed the laid-back lifestyle. She really found enjoyment in just relaxing with a glass of Chenin Blanc and spending as much time as possible with her grandkids. They were her true happiness and she loved them more than anything.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 37 years, her son Michael Styx and her siblings, Ora Jean Rowe, Wayne Douglas Robinson, and Michael Robinson.

She will be remembered and missed by her daughters, Andrea (Chad) Healey, and Shawn (Randy) Todd, her grandchildren, Stephanie Styx, Caitlyn Healey, Colin Healey, Carter Todd, Ella Todd, and Avery Healey; her siblings, Lowell Dean Robinson, Mallie Robinson, Jr., and Marlene Barron.

Private family services have been entrusted to Skyway Memorial Funeral Homes and Gardens, Palmetto www.skywaymemorial.com

Linda was a fierce family loving woman in a way that the grandkids were valued in her ❤️ heart. When she likes you , she loved you and I am grateful for her giving me the ultimate best friend I could ever have. I know Andrea and family will miss her so much. Glad to have gotten to spend time with her and enjoy her personality! She raised great kids and her love shows through them !
