Mary was a wonderful individual who we always enjoyed as a loving friend. She and Bill were fun to be with and we had many good times with them. Her yoga classes at Willow Lake will be long remembered. Our good friends, such as Mary and Bill, are getting fewer and farther away. Mary's memory will always be with us. Our condolences to Elizabeth Anne, Mary Katherine and their families.

Mary was and always will be a treasured "yoga friend." Her presence in class and at the studio were always enjoyed, as were her most astute contributions to yoga book group conversations. Much wisdom, much Love, endless Faith; both a student and teacher all at once. She is surely missed. Shanti, Namaste, and God Bless. Marjorie Crawford

Dear Grandma, It's hard to believe you're gone. You taught me how to appreciate the ocean, while at the same time teaching me about appearances and life. That nightshirt you and Grandpa bought me that says, "I don't do mornings" still makes me laugh! You lived your life with grace and kindness, and the world is a sadder place without you in it. Sincerely, Your favourite granddaughter (who will never again be able to make that joke), Maria LaFollette-Bruno
