Donald Michael Williams

JUL 20, 1982 - MAY 20, 2022

Donald Michael “Donnie” Williams, 39, of Parrish, Florida left us to soon on Friday, May 20, 2022. Born July 20, 1982, in Worcester, Massachusetts, he is the first-born son of Lisa M. (McCallum) Fuller and Dell G. Williams. After graduating from Shepherd Hill Regional High School, he enlisted and proudly served 11 years as an OIF/OEF veteran with the Massachusetts Army National Guard. He served with the 747 MP Co during their deployments to Afghanistan and Iraq. In 2007 he pursued a career as a Journey Lineman with the IEBW 104. He proudly worked for ARC American in Florida since July 2020 where he held the Foreman Position and transitioned into a field safety position. Donnie has spent most of his career following storms and restoring power for homes across the USA. He loved everything outdoors, spending most of his free time fishing and boating. He will be remembered for his pride of his hometown Charlton MA and his love for his family and friends. His superpower was his willingness to help anyone in need and of course always having a lot to say.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Donald Williams and Frances (Neely) and his maternal grandparents, James McCallum and Nancy Meskus, his nephew Joel and several uncles and aunts.

He will be remembered and missed by his mother and stepfather, Lisa and Rick Fuller; his father, Dell Williams (Kamdy); his son, Devon Williams; the mother of his son, Kathrine (Kat) Williams; his siblings, Charlie (Johanna) Williams, Darcy (Bobby) Sullivan, Duane Williams; his stepsiblings, Alex Fuller, Meghan Fuller and Melissa (Scott) Menard. His step grandparents, Roger and Kathy Meskus; many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews and cousins.

A farewell would not be complete unless we mentioned the special people that made Don’s life complete, his friends, Chris, Eric, Donnie, Josh, Paul, Joe, Mark, Pat, Nacho and the Charlton Boys.
