Trevor W Thompson

DEC 4, 1938 - JUL 18, 2022

Trevor Winton Thompson, 83, was called home to the Lord on July 18, 2022. Trevor was born December 4, 1938 in Jamaica to Loel and Norah Thompson. After a few years of pursuing his rose Jean Thompson after college. Trevor spent 52 wonderful years as a pastor in Jamaica, the Bahamas, the Cayman Islands, Illinois, Texas, and Oklahoma. He also served as the President of Cayman Islands Mission of Seventh-day Adventists and Executive Secretary of the Oklahoma Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Trevor will be fondly remembered in his happy socks as a loving people person who enjoyed laughing and making other people laugh. He never met a stranger for too long. Left to cherish the memory of Trevor is his loving wife of 59 years Jean, children: Juliet Karubian, and Stephen and his wife Kim; grandchildren whom he loved to spoil Dara, Jack, Jordin, and Daniel; and a host of other family and friends he's made along the way.

A visitation will be Sunday July 24, 2022 from 10-11am with a service beginning at 11am at Palmetto Seventh-day Adventist Church 3307 10th St W, Palmetto, FL 34221. Private family burial will take place the next day at Skyway Memorial Gardens in Palmetto, FL.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Adventist Frontier Missions can be made to help spread the loving message of hope that Trevor held near and dear to his heart. <https://afmonline.org/give>

What a wonderful man he was! He greeted me the day I walked back into the church as a young pregnant mother. He counseled me and rebaptized me at that time. He was always so kind. My son used to draw him pictures. We loved him and Jean. ❤️❤️❤️ We'll see you in the new kingdom Pastor, you surely pointed the way for many!
