Ralph T. Liptak Jr.

DEC 30, 1948 - AUG 13, 2022

Ralph T. Liptak Jr. Bradenton, FL. 1948-2022

Ralph Liptak passed away after a brief illness on 8/13/2022 joining his loving wife, Phyllis (Boyens) Liptak. Ralph was born in Springfield, MA and was raised in Southwick, MA. He graduated from Southwick High School and enjoyed playing competitive soccer. He then went on to Wentworth Institute of Technology where he received his Associate Degree in Electronic Engineering. Ralph was an outdoors man who enjoyed hunting, fishing, and golfing. He was a fan of all sports and especially loved The Tennessee Titans. Ralph retired from Radiant Power after 25 years of service, where he met his friend, Greg, who was very special to Ralph.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his children, Cory Liptak and Lori Liptak of Westfield, MA; his stepchildren, Travis Boyens and Tammy Johnston of Bradenton, FL and Jason Boyens of Folsom, CA; his 4 grandchildren, whom he loved and adored, Jon, Chase, and Magan Liptak, and Elizabeth Clink of Westfield, MA; his step grandchildren, Scarlett Reid, and Kaitlyn Ritchie of Bradenton, FL, and Dakota Johnston of Kentucky; 2 great grandchildren, Mason and Cameron of Westfield MA; step great grandchildren, Trey, Remi, Kai, Dakota, and Caisyn. He also leaves behind his friend and hunting buddy, Tom Stevens, who was a great friend to Ralph and a strong support to his family during this difficult time. Ralph leaves behind numerous cousins and friends. Ralph is survived by his brother-in-law, Scott Warner and nephew, Scott Warner of Westfield, MA. He was predeceased by his parents, Ralph T. Liptak Sr. & Rose (Bruneau) Liptak and by his sister Cynthia (Liptak) Warner.

Ralph's service will be at Skyway Memorial Funeral Home and Gardens, 5200 US Hwy 19N, Palmetto, FL on Thursday, September 1, 2022, at 10:00am. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Hospice House of Bradenton FL., or the American Cancer Society.
