We remember your dad very well. He would come to the UP to visit Sig and Art. While there he would help them with any home projects that needed completed. Thru the years we'd see him in Florida. Seemed he was always helping someone. When we went to their house for lunch he made the best tossed salad and cut everything up very small. And recently since moving in with Sig. The last Sabbath lunch we had with him she made SourKraut potatoes and he wanted 2nd's. Kurt always had a smile and I enjoyed him telling me about his childhood in Germany. He will be missed. He loved you all so much. It's hard to think of right now, but no parting on this earth is final. We will see him again! Love, Chris and Duane

Things dad loved to do... loading up on blueberries playing golf ...

baked goods, especially German recipes...

Christmas time ...

using his knowledge and skills to help others ...

Such rich memories of a loving and caring father who sacrificed much to give us a good life.
