“ Mom, I miss you more than anything. I am so thankful for the time that we found to talk on the phone. It was never easy. Being on the other side of the Country was a major difficulty but we always seemed to find time to talk to each other as often as we could. I really wish that I knew how serious your condition was this year, but of course, I was left in the dark. I am sorry that I was not given the opportunity to be at your funeral. I am sorry that I did not receive word of your passing until you had already moved on to your next journey. I was told of your "wonderful" service via text message after it was all said and done, so I never got the chance to tell you how much I love you, how much I'm going to miss you, and how much it hurts to know that we will never talk, laugh, or reminisce again. I am so very thankful that there is an outlet such as this that I can communicate my thoughts and feelings to you. I have a photo I will leave here with our memories. It's when Oria and I came to visit back in 2013. We had such a great time and I will always cherish this memory. Thank you Mom. I Love you.
