“ I knew lance all throughout my life. As a little girl I would not only look up to him as my brother in law but even a father figure at times. I could always count on him if I needed something and I know he had a big heart. I will never forget his goofy side because that was one of his best features. This was an emotional rollercoaster. However, I wanted to promise him that I will forever be there for my sister heather and my nephew Evan.

“ I'm truly heartbroken to lose such an important person in our family. Lance was like a son and a younger brother to me, he will always be in my heart. I know how much he loved Heather and Evan and that love goes on forever. I love him too and I know he's at peace and in Heaven with our Lord and all the people that loved him before us In Heaven and I truly wait for the day we will all be together again. God blessed us with a beautiful soul in Lance.
