When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

“ Bette, my heart goes out to you. It was always a pleasure running into you and Lyle when I was in town. Could always count on a warm welcome and a smile! He will be missed, I'm sure.

“ Lyle was one of the most wonderful people I have ever met. A true gentleman with a beautiful soul. He always had a cheerful smile to help light up my day. His love for his lovely wife Bette was so apparent, and he praised her highly until the day he passed. He adored his boys, their wife's and grandchildren. I will always remember him fondly as a proud husband, father and grandfather. He was the best neighbor and friend anyone could ask for. I was blessed to have known him. I miss him greatly, Terri McGrath-Cusick
