When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

“ Aunt Mimi. My favorite memories are of you and your brothers (my dad of course) singing on Christmas Eve. Another piece of our family has joined the angels. May the Lord embrace you and bring you peace in your heavenly home. Well Done.

“ Maria Johnson was a dear friend, mentor and prayer warrior. She loved and served Jesus with her whole heart! She knew Jesus is the only way to Heaven (John 14:6) and she knew He wants everyone to accept His free gift of forgiveness. We miss her but know we'll see her one day in Heaven!
