When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile

Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day

Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay

And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best

“ Ruth came to Quebec, Canada and lived in our midst for several years before retiring and moving to Florida. I had the great privilege to be chosen by Ruth to be her friend and I was supposed to help her in learning French, but we reverted to English too frequently for me to be of much assistance. Ruth’s love for her Lord and Master was so inspirational. We were less in touch these last years since Ruth had a newfound love and life and my only regret is to have just now found out that Ruth is in Heaven. I can rejoice knowing that she has stayed the course and is forever happy.

“ Such a sweet lady, I always enjoyed doing her hair to make her as beautiful on the out side as she was on the inside. Prayers for all
