“ His happy place and the source of my favorite memories with Wayne were when we were in the boat ON the water or eating something FROM the water. He loved sharing with me and showing me everything he knew about local waters and fishing. It became my happy place too and we had LOTS of years of wonderful memories in Tampa Bay on and off the water. We still talked occasionally and I'll forever wish I had been a better influence and inspiration to help him find healing and ultimately happiness that he so richly deserved! RIP Wayne, I'll miss our chats:(My deepest sympathies to his entire family who welcomed me and mine with open arms nearly 2 decades ago. Thinking of you all during this difficult time!

“ Wayne was always a very happy person. I will always remember our fishing trip to Jiggs Landing with Wayne and Jim Wolnick. Wayne was a great person.
